President's Message

Changes

I've heard it said that the only thing you can be sure of in life is death and taxes. I'm not sure that captures the concept completely. The only thing that seems to be an axiom of truth is change itself. Seeds grow into plants, produce new seeds for the next generation, and then fade away. Mountains grow as the earth's crust moves, and are then pulverized back to sand by the wind and rain. Stars are born in huge nebulae in space, attract planets and moons to orbit them, and then end their lives in massive explosions.

These last couple of years at the BFAA have seen a great deal of change. I would think that this is a good thing for artists who are always looking for new inspiration and different ways of expressing themselves and sharing their work with others in new ways. Rather than doing things the same way, and getting the same results, the BFAA executive has been trying new things to challenge ourselves and our members. For instance, we have a new all guild juried show which started last year. We have a new format for Kaleidoscope, with our attempt to shake things up with our 12 x 12 painting wall. And of course the curated 50th Anniversary show, Urban and Rural, Presidents Wall, and Power of Passion show.

How all these changes turn out, we will have to wait and see. Regardless of the outcome, it will be interesting. As Henry Bergson said, "To exist is to change, to change is to mature, to mature is to go on creating oneself endlessly."

Ivan Fernandez
BFAA President

Art Appreciation

Wednesday, March 9, 2016

On Wednesday, March 9th, our Art Appreciation get together will be a discussion of symbolism in the arts. Just for fun, Doug Cockell will focus on fruit imagery, from still life paintings that say worlds about class and affluence, to D.H. Lawrence making us all blush with his description of a peach... It's called "Strange Fruit" (after the Billy Holliday song), and it's free to all at 1 pm. In the Fine Arts Studio. Please join us.
